CASE COMPETITION

RULEBOOK

TEAM SPECIFICATIONS

- The competition is open to undergraduate students from all institutions. Registration is open to students enrolled in any accredited undergraduate program.
 - Teams are permitted a maximum of 3 members each, with the option for cross-institutional collaboration. [PS - cross-gender teams are strictly prohibited.]
 - Individuals are prohibited from registering for more than one team in the competition.
 - Each team is required to appoint a team leader and select a distinct team name.

GENERAL RULES

Preliminary Round

1. Following the conclusion of the registration period, registered teams will receive the case. Teams will then have four days to analyse the case and submit their solutions.
2. Participating teams must submit their solutions in both PowerPoint (PPT) and Portable Document Format (PDF) versions. It is important to adhere to the slide limit of 30 slides for the PowerPoint file.
3. Participants are instructed to adhere to proper referencing guidelines.
4. Plagiarism is strictly prohibited.
5. From the preliminary round, 10 teams will be selected for the final round.

Final Round

1. Teams advancing to the final round will be promptly notified of their selection.
2. During the final round, teams will deliver an online presentation before a panel of distinguished judges. The presentation will be on the submissions made by the respective teams during the preliminary round.
3. The final round will be evaluated by the judges, and their decisions will be deemed final in all aspects. Consequently, no objections may be raised against the judges' determinations.
4. The organisers retain the authority to amend the rules as they see necessary.

EVALUATION PROCEDURE

Preliminary Round

The submission of the preliminary round will be based on the following criteria.

1. Proper referencing: Marking will be positively influenced by the accuracy and adherence to proper referencing standards.
2. Slide design: Teams will receive additional marks for the superior design of their presentation slides.
3. Analytical Reasoning: Teams demonstrating superior reasoning and referencing will earn additional marks.

Final Round

1. Presentation skill: Teams exhibiting exceptional presentation skills will have a competitive advantage.
 2. Behaviour: Teams displaying professionalism and exemplary conduct will receive additional marks.

DISQUALIFICATION

1. Teams comprising members of both genders will be disqualified.
2. Submissions found to contain plagiarism will not be accepted.
3. Any display of disrespect towards judges, volunteers, adherence to security protocols, or opposing teams will result in immediate disqualification.
4. A team may face disqualification for misbehaving, threatening behaviour, or attempting to incite conspiracy or disruption.
5. Failure of any team to present their case online within the specified timeframe will result in disqualification.
